From the President:

Greetings,

I hope everyone enjoyed the Martin Luther King three day weekend. If you have time on Tuesday, try to make it to room 127 where there will be a celebration of Dr. King's life at noon. Every year professors and student groups host this event to remind us of Dr. King's message that "injustice anywhere is a threat to justice everywhere."

If you are not already on top of your job search week 2 is a great week to start doing just that. If you are thinking you might want to intern abroad this summer go check out the information session CGLP is hosting this Wednesday at noon in room 135. If you feel like you need guidance or don't know how to go about searching for a job, go talk to LCS and plan out a job search strategy. Make sure to research application due dates for summer internships and to apply early and often. Research summer job fairs you may potentially want to apply to and make sure you don't miss the spring registration deadlines. Most of all remember to cast a wide net and to not let any self-doubt keep you from applying for a job you think might be a long shot.

Finally, last week I promised more information on this years' Barrister's Ball. The event is on February 10th at the Fairmont Hotel in downtown San Jose. Ticket sales will start next week on Monday January 23rd at noon and will take place in Bannan Lounge. The ticket price for students is $50.00. For more information on this years' event please contact Grant Atkinson or Kyle Smith.

Enjoy the short week and see everyone at bar review on Thursday!

Sincerely,

Christian Cornejo
