From the President:

Greetings,

This Friday, the student bar will come together for its most cherished tradition, Barrister's Ball! This annual event celebrates all of the hard work and effort we put in as students and all of our many accomplishments over the last year. Dean Polden and many of your favorite professors and staff will be in attendance, so make sure to come out and have a fun and responsible time. Barrister's Ball will start with a reception at 5:30 PM followed by dinner at 6:30 PM. I hope to see all of you there!

There are many great events going on this week. The events range from club general meetings (Public Interest/Social Justice Coalition (PISJC), National Lawyers Guild, and Christian Law Society) to panel discussions (Environmental Law Society & Real Estate Law Society, ACLU & NCIP) on some very important subjects. I know the different clubs and centers have worked really hard to put these events on and I strongly encourage you to check them out. Please see the calendar for more details.

On the job front, LCS & SIPLA are hosting Kate Patterson this Monday at noon in Bannan 127. Kate has specialized in recruiting and consulting services since 1980 and she really knows the IP market. At the event, Kate will discuss different strategies on how to go about starting your career in IP. So if you are interested in IP don't miss this event! Also, LCS and the Center for Global Law and Policy are hosting a panel discussion on careers in International Law within the private Sector on Tuesday at 5pm. The three scheduled panelist have a wealth of experience in this field so make sure you don't miss out.

Also this week, Woman and Law will be tabling in Bannan Lounge selling candy grams for Valentine's Day. All the proceeds from the candy gram sales are going to help purchase supplies for their Blink-A-Thon event which benefits the South Bay Chapter of Project Linus. At the same time, W & L will be hosting a Professional Clothing Donation Drive. They are looking for both Men's and Women's professional clothing and accessories that are clean and in great condition. This is all for a good cause so make sure to donate that dress shirt, tie, blouse or handbag you no longer use and in the process buy a candy gram for a friend, mentor/mentee, your favorite professor, or even for that classmate who gave you that outline that saved your butt this past December.

Finally a couple of deadlines this week: if you plan on applying for a Public Interest and Social Justice Certificate the applications are due this Monday. If you plan on applying for a High Tech Law Institute Certificate those applications are due on Friday. Make sure to get your applications in on time!

Have a great week! Sincerely, Christian Cornejo

PRIVATE SECTOR OPPORTUNITIES

PANELISTS

CHARLES COMEY
DANA HAVILAND
WILLIAM BLACK

Charles Comey

Chuck Comey is a corporate finance partner in Morrison & Foerster's Palo Alto office. Before relocating to Silicon Valley in July 2010, he opened and served as Managing Partner of the firm's Shanghai office for seven years, and worked on the ground both in China and Japan for over 16 years. As co-chair of Morrison & Foerster's China Private Equity Group, he advises clients on venture capital and private equity financings, mergers and acquisitions, and strategic alliances, as well as RMB fund formation and Cleantech and Life Sciences matters. He also counsels public companies on Foreign Corrupt Practices Act issues.

Dana Haviland

Dana Haviland is a Silicon Valley arbitrator and mediator specializing in international commercial and technology-related disputes, with over 25 years experience. Her arbitration practice began in Paris, as counsel for multinationals and governments in international trade and investment disputes. The technology focus evolved during her years as a partner at Wilson Sonsini. As counsel for tech companies, and as an independent arbitrator, she has handled international and domestic business and intellectual property disputes involving Internet commerce, biotechnology, medical devices, computer technology, telecommunications, mergers, licensing, financing, and securities.

William R. Black

William Black has spent over 20 years as a transactional lawyer and General Counsel of multinational public companies in the United States, Europe, Latin America and Asia, as well as over 10 years as an executive manager in the financial services and consulting industries. His major practice areas include securities, cross border acquisitions, divestitures and joint ventures, regulatory compliance, corporate governance, commercial and government contracts, intellectual property, labor and employment, and business, commercial and bankruptcy litigation.

CGLP Special Speaker:

Ambassador David Scheffer

"Chasing Impunity: A War Crimes Ambassador's Memoir"

The masterminds of atrocity crimes in modern times are facing fewer choices as war crimes tribunals and outraged citizens seek both justice and political upheaval. David Scheffer, America's first Ambassador at Large for War Crimes Issues and author of All the Missing Souls: A Personal History of the War Crimes Tribunals, discusses atrocity crimes past, present, and future and how the fate of indicted leaders will be an international trial or vengeful retribution. The choice is no longer peace or justice to bring genocide or crimes against humanity to an end. The days of impunity are ending in the 21st century.

David John Scheffer is an American lawyer and diplomat who served as the first United States Ambassador-at-Large for War Crimes Issues, during President Bill Clinton's second term in office. He currently teaches at the Northwestern University School of Law, where he directs the Center for International Human Rights.

As ambassador, Scheffer participated in the creation of the International Criminal Tribunals for the former Yugoslavia and Rwanda, the Special Court for Sierra Leone, and the Extraordinary Chambers in Cambodia. He also led the U.S. negotiating team in United Nations talks on the International Criminal Court. Though Scheffer signed the Rome Statute that established the ICC on behalf of the U.S. in 2000, he was a highly vocal critic of many aspects of the court and the negotiation process. He particularly opposed the prohibition on any party making reservations to the Rome Statute and the manner in which the Statute structured the court's jurisdiction.
