The Herman Wildman Social Justice Writing Award will be given to the best student essay on a Public Interest and Social Justice Law topic. Students are encouraged to submit papers written for a class, law review, or other forum from the 2014 Spring Semester through the 2014-15 academic year.

The Herman Wildman Social Justice Writing Award honors the memory of Herman Wildman, 1912-2002, who practiced law in New York and California. The 2014 winner will receive a $250 honorarium and an engraved plaque.

Papers will be judged by faculty members on the Public Interest and Social Justice Law Advisory Board who did not supervise the writing project.

Please Submit the Following WITH THIS FORM

1. Three copies of your essay with no name identification.
2. A two- to five-sentence synopsis of the paper.

3. The name of the writing supervisor or course instructor. If you had no supervisor or course instructor, please explain.

4. OPTIONAL: You may attach a nomination letter from the writing supervisor or course instructor.

Your Name

Address

Phone ___________________________ Year of Graduation _______________________

E-mail Address

Social Security Number _______________________

Submission Deadline: Tuesday, April 28 at noon to Center for Social Justice and Public Service, 500 El Camino Real, Bannan Hall, 3rd Floor, Room 301F.