Friday, February 9	Bridging the Privacy Gap: GPDR Symposium 8:50 AM – 1:00 PM Mission Room, SCU The General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) is the most far reaching, complex, and strict international privacy law ever enacted. Businesses across the globe that process personal data belonging to European residents are currently trying to understand exactly how the regulation applies to them and to ensure compliance by the May 25, 2018 deadline. The GDPR will greatly affect the legal profession globally, and many Silicon Valley tech companies in particular. This symposium will examine the implications, challenges, and risks posed by the new European privacy law to businesses located in the United States. CLE/CPE credits available (max. 3; 1 per hour) For complete list of speakers and the schedule, please visit the registration and register online! Free for SCU students and faculty, $25 for non-SCU attorneys and students FYF: Managing Imposter Syndrome 12:00 PM Bannan 127 This panel discussion will explore impostor syndrome, and the need for belonging — as a new professional, as a law student, and as a future lawyer. We'll particularly discuss how 1L grades and job conversations can impact our feelings of belonging here. Not sure what impostor syndrome is; check-out this definition from Merriam-Webster: https://www.merriam-webster.com/words-at-play/what-is-impostor-syndrome

“Community Notes” - What’s Happening Around the Bay Area?

Tuesdays, February 7, 2018 Music @ Noon: Jazz Reach SCU Recital Hall @ 12 pm  FREE	Established in 1994, JazzReach is a nationally recognized New York City-based organization dedicated to the promotion, performance, creation and teaching of jazz music. Through the presentation of widely acclaimed performances, JazzReach is steadfastly dedicated to fostering a greater appreciation of this American art form.
The Other Side of Assimilation: How Immigrants are Changing American Life 4-5:30 pm  FREE	In The Other Side of Assimilation: How Immigrants are Changing American, Tomás Jiménez explains how established Americans undergo their own assimilation in response to profound immigration-driven ethnic, racial, political, economic, and cultural shifts. Jiménez reveals how immigration not only changes the American cityscape but also reshapes the United States by altering the outlooks and identities of its most established citizens.
Romeo is Bleeding  Music Recital Hall 7:30 p.m. FREE	A fatal turf war between neighborhoods haunts the city of Richmond, California. Using his voice to inspire those around him, poet Donté Clark and the like-minded youth of the city mount an urban adaptation of Shakespeare's "Romeo and Juliet," with the hope of starting a real dialogue about violence in the city.
Wednesday, February 8, 2018  A historical approach to police brutality 832 Market Street 6-8 p.m.	Salon 2018: Radical Imaginations: Jazz and Justice from Civil Rights to Black Lives Matter 4:00 p.m. - 5:30 p.m. PST de Saisset Museum FREE 	Bringing together jazz artists, scholars, and educators this panel will explore jazz music and culture as a launching point to discuss race relations, civil rights, and social change in the United States.

Do you feel like everyone in class understands what is going on, except you?

Maybe you shouldn't have even been admitted to law school? Maybe you got in by accident? – by luck? -- through some quota? – through connections?

Do you procrastinate or fear being discovered as a fraud?

Learn how to deal with IMPOSTER SYNDROME

It's rampant among high achievers – like Law Students, Lawyers, and Judges -- and the higher you go, the more vulnerable you are to it.

Honorable Shelyna V. Brown will join us on February 9th to talk about how to recognize and manage Imposter Syndrome.

Judge Brown earned her JD from SCU Law and is one of the youngest appointments ever to California Superior Court. Judge Brown has received many awards for her commitment to community and often coaches others on pathways to professional success.

Join us February 9th at noon in Bannan 127.

All students welcome and encouraged to attend!

Lunch will be provided.

WHAT'S GALENTINE'S DAY?!

“Oh, it's only the best day of the year. Every February 13th, my lady friends and I leave our husbands and our boyfriends at home, and we just come and kick it, breakfast-style. Ladies celebrating ladies. It's like Lilith Fair, minus the angst. Plus frittatas.”
