- Judge a little? Judge a lot? For a day or more, we need volunteers to judge. Santa Clara Law invites all alumni to consider sharing a day or more to assist in the upcoming student competitions. Here are the details:

February 15-16: Client Counseling Competition:
(Contact Prof. Karin Carter, Competition Administrator at kccarter@scu.edu)
Volunteer attorneys and counseling professionals are needed to serve as client counseling competition judges at the Region 9 rounds of the 2013-2014 ABA Client Counseling Competition, hosted by Santa Clara Law. This year's topic is First Amendment Law. It's a way for you to help the next generation of lawyers to gain valuable experience and to learn from your comments and feedback. Please RSVP here!

February 21-23: Texas Young Lawyer’s Association Regional Trial Competition:
(Contact Prof. Ellen Kreitzberg at ekreitzberg@scu.edu)
We will be hosting 13 schools in this prestigious competition that encourages and strengthens student’s advocacy skills through quality competition. It’s a wonderful opportunity for students to showcase their talents and interact with professionals in the area of litigation. We are looking for judges to preside over the trials and grade the participants on their performances. The competition will take place at the courthouse located at 191 N. First Street in Downtown San Jose. We need attorneys to help judge on the following dates and times:
Preliminary Round 1: Friday, February 21 from 6 PM-9 PM
Preliminary Round 2: Saturday, February 22 from 8:30-12 noon
Quarterfinals: Saturday, February 22 from 1-4:30 PM
Semifinals: Sunday, February 23 from 9 AM-12:30 PM
