         1. Confirming Martin, SCOTUS can even review criminal cases

   c. Exclusivity in Constitutional Interpretation
i. Cooper v. Aaron 1958
1. Re: Brown v. Board of Education ruling to desegregate schools – Arkansa gov. deploys state guard to prevent integration of Little Rock schools
2. Legislature cannot nullify or go around a SCOTUS ruling on constitutionality by making a law that circumvents their decision
3. Affirm supre
4. macy in Marbury
5. “no state legislature or executive or judicial officer can war against the constitution without violating his undertaking to support”
6. “permanent and indispensible feature of our const” that the federal judiciary is supreme and interprets the law
7. non-litigants have to obey SCOUT order as well

ii. Dickerson v. U.S.
1. Any legislation passed in conflict with SCOTUS decision is unconstitutional
2. Congress tried to pass a federal statute to overturn Miranda v. Arizona decision – NOT okay!

d. Limits on Constitutional Adjudication

i. Political Checks on SCOTUS:

1. Appointment process: nomination & confirmation
2. Impeachment (occurs in leg. Branch)
3. Structural changes (“switch in time”)
   a. Switch in time saved 9 – FDR wanted to add judges because SCOTUS kept blocking new deal legislation. Threat of change to court made court start to rule in favor of FDR’s policies
4. Congressional changes to appeale jurisdiction (“court-stripping” Ex Parte v. McCardle)
5. Constitutional amendment could overturn a SCOTUS decision

ii. Art. III “Cases or Controversies” Reqs:

1. Is the right person litigating?
   a. Standing = legal determination that the party in the case may bring the action
2. Is it the right time to litigate?
   a. Ripeness = ready for adjudication, prevents premature adjudication. Dispute is insufficiently developed and is too remote or speculative to warrant court action.
   b. Mootness = can’t be too late for adjudication to make a difference
      i. Exceptions
         1. capable of repetition but evading review (Roe v. Wade)
         2. voluntary cessation of a challenged practice does not deprive the court of its power to determine the legality of the practice.
iii. Standing:
   1. INJURY in fact
      a. Clapper v. Amnesty International (Supp pg 1)
         i. Threatened injury was not certainly impending ii. Self imposed injury & hypothetical injury
      b. U.S. v. Windsor
         i. There is standing
         ii. DOMA act, taxes, IRS
         iii. The govt does have standing because the IRS would have to pay taxes, act required

2. CAUSATION, causal connection between injury and legislation
   a. Lujan v. Defenders of Wildlife
   b. Allen v. Wright
      i. Tax exceptions, private schools still get money from govt but are segregating ii. Parents didn’t have proper standing because causation link
      iii. Possibly don’t use this case cuz fucked up

3. REDRESSABILITY. Must be likely that the injury will be redressed by a favorable court decision
   a. Inability to alleviate the injury tantamount to rendering an advisory opinion
   b. Massachusetts v. Environmental Protection Agency

iv. Prudential Standing Requirements
(Not mandated by const. but considered by the court improve judicial efficiency)
   1. No assertion of 3rd party rights (jus tetii)
   2. No adjudication of generalized grievances
      a. Hollingsworth v. Perry
         i. Prop 8 supporters intervene in the case but don’t have standing to hear this case ii. Generalized grievance is not enough
   3. When standing is authorized by federal statute the plaintiff must be with zone of interest
      a. Zone of interest = within the class of persons/harm contemplated by Congress as a beneficiary of the statute
   4. No political questions
   5. No advisory opinions
      a. Prudential Standing Cases:
         i. Craig v. Boren
         ii. Flast v. Cohen
         iii. FEC v. Aikens – zone of interests iv. Vermont, qui tam
         v. Raines v. bird – no standing
         vi. Bond – can challenge indictment even if no state involved
v. Countermajortitarian Doctrine
   1. The idea that SCOTUS should not be able to undo a law enacted by Congress because it was made under the authority of the majority of people who voted those representatives into office

vi. No Political Questions
   1. Issues committed by the Constitution to another branch of govt; or
   2. Inherently incapable of resolution by the judicial process.
   3. Baker v. Carr (56), an issue is a political question IF:
      PACERS
      1. Textually demonstrable, its written in the Constitution that someone else has that power;
      2. Lack of judicially discoverable and manageable Standard;
      3. Impossibility of deciding without initial Policy determination;
      4. A lack of Respect to coordinate branch;
      5. Unusual need for Unquestioning Adherence to a political decision already made; or
      6. Potential Embarrassment from multiple branches making announcements on one question

4. Situations in which political questions may arise:
   a. Foreign relations
   b. Existence of hostility
   c. Constitutional amendments
   d. Guaranty clause
III. Federalism I: Federal Sovereign Power

a. Values Served by Federalism:

   i. Autonomy
   ii. Checking concentrated power
   iii. Localism
   iv. Citizen choice
   v. Experimentation
   vi. Political accountability

b. Federalism Doctrines [Separation of Power]:

   i. Vertical separation of power (fed/states)
   ii. Horizontal separation of powers (fed branches= jed/leg/exec)

c. Background:

   i. Each level of government had distinct contributions to make to national welfare ii. Framers expected the default norm to be states regulating most aspects of public policy iii. Post Civil War there was a rise in national regulatory agencies, new deal, limits state power & shifts to federal power
      1. Ex. 14th amendment interpreted as entire Bill of rights applying to the states

d. Police Power

   i. States have general police power to regulate any health, safety, welfare, moral or aesthetic interest.
   ii. Fed does not – fed must use an enumerated power. (could use tax & spend...)

e. Supremacy Clause – Art. VI, Cl.2

   i. The Constitution, treaties, and laws of the United States are the “supreme law of the land” ii. A federal law will supersede any state law in direct conflict iii. Congress can PREEMPT any state law in an area in which exercise of federal power is constitutional 1. States may enact similar legislation to a fed one if:
         a. Congress did not intent to occupy the field completely; and
         b. State law is not otherwise preempted
      2. States can legislate more stringent standards than those mandated by federal law
         a. If congress created a min standard (health & safety reqs for food/drugs, or roads/highways)

   i. “The Citizens of each state shall be entitled to all Privileges & Immunities of Citizens in the several States” (274)
   1. aka – states can’t discriminate against non-residents
   ii. Similar to DCC...but NOT the same
       1. No protection for corporations
       2. Congress can’t legislate around P&I
       3. Only FUNDAMENTAL economic or liberty rights
       4. No market participant exception
   iii. Supreme Crt NH v. Piper
        1. Woman lived very close to border but couldn’t be admitted to state bar even though she passed the bar, lived only a few miles from border in that state because bar admission was only for in-state residents
   iv. Saenz v. Rose (see again later in SDP)
        1. Woman challenged CA residency year requirement for receiving welfare benefits, unconstitutional
   v. Camden Construction Case 1.

   g. Guaranty Clause – Art. IV § 4
      i. “The U.S. shall guaranty to every state in this union, a republic form of government”
         1. SCOTUS decided that the legislative branch is supposed to enforce this clause (Luther v. Bordan)

   h. Necessary & Proper Clause - Art. I § 8 cl. 18
      i. Congress has power to make all laws necessary and proper for carrying into execution any power granted to any branch of the federal government
      ii. Interpretations of N&C:
           1. Strict Constructionist (Jefferson) v.
              a. limit the scope of the powers exercised by national government as closely as possible to powers enumerated in the constitution
           2. Broad Constructionism (Hamilton)
              a. expanding powers available to government
           3. Structuralism (Madison)
              a. necessary & proper clause is superfluous, framers intended to restrict the scope of national government implied power to powers incidental to express powers iii. McCulloch v. Maryland (75)
           1. Yes Congress has power to charter a national Bank because congress has power to tax and spend, Chief Justice John Marshall
2. Maryland could not tax the national bank – Supremacy clause argument

iv. United States v. Comstock (99) – (memorization device: “if you get a Rat or Mouse stuck under your car, it is necessary & proper to call AAA”)

1. Did the necessary & proper clause give authority to congress to commit sex offenders under Adam Walsh Child Protection Act? Yes...
   a. Federal commitment and prisons are regulated by federal government
2. Broad scope given to Congress under Necessary & Proper
   a. N&P clause grants congress broad authority to enact federal legislation that is “convenient, or useful” or “conducive” to Congress’ beneficial exercise of a constitutionally enumerated power
3. 5 considerations is beyond scope of nec & prop:
   a. does the statute constitute a means that is Rationally Related to the implementation of a constitutionally enumerated power?
   b. Modest addition to existing law
   c. Reasonably Adapted to congress’ power to act
   d. Statue properly Accounts for states interests
   e. Link between the statutes & the enumerate Art. I power are not too Attenuated

vi. NFIB v. Sebelius (101)
1. Government relied on commerce power + nec & prop clause, not allowed
2. Chief justice Roberts rejected govt arg, stressed that federal action must be necessary and proper, Obamacare was NOT proper use of nec & prop
IV. Congress’ Legislative Powers – Article I §8

a. Check on the validity of federal legislation:
   i. What enumerated power?
   ii. Federalism Limits: 10th and 11th Amendments

b. Commerce Power (Art. I §8 cl. 3)

   i. Congress has the power “to regulate Commerce with foreign Nations, and among the several States, and with the Indian Tribes.”

   ii. 4 eras of SCOTUS Commerce Analysis:
       1. 1800 – 1890: Legislative Inactivity
       2. 1887-1937: Judicial Skepticism
          a. Industrial Revolution, Laissez faire trumps
       3. 1937 – 1995: Judicial Deference
          a. whatever go for it congress, New Deal

         i. “Quintessentially Economic”:
            1. Produced
            2. Distributed
            3. Consumed
      b. Regulated activity has an aggregate effect on interstate commerce (Wickard)

iv. Modern Commerce Power Test:
    1. An underlying economic activity that substantially affects interstate commerce.
       a. Jurisdictional elements (nexus)
       b. Congressional findings

v. Old Timey Cases:
   1. Gibbons v. Ogden (110) = navigation is a channel of interstate commerce, anything that passes between 2 states
   2. Shreveport Rate Case (113) = court sustained Congress’ authority to regulate intrastate rail rates that discriminated against interstate railroad traffic
   3. NLRB v. Jones & Laughlin Steel Corp. (125) = court starts to change its approach to commerce clause after the New Deal, allows the federal government to regulate hours & wages
   4. US v. Darby (127) = lumber manufacturer, fair labor standards act of 1938 to regulate the hours and wages of employees in local manufacturing activities
   5. Wickard v. Filburn (130)
      a. Broadest interpretation of the commerce clause
      b. wheat case farmer who grew wheat for himself, Court said that he did effect interstate commerce in the aggregate
      c. Congress can regulate purely intrastate activity that is not itself “commercial” in that it is not produced for sale, if it concludes that failure to regulate that class of activity would undercut the regulation of the interstate market in that commodity

d. Aggregate effect

vi. Civil Rights Cases:
1. Heart of Atlanta Motel v. U.S. (133)
   a. Hotels are an instrumentalities of interstate commerce

   a. C.P. valid use to prohibit “loan sharking” because those transactions are a major source of revenue for organized crime and organized crime had an adverse effect on interstate commerce
2. U.S. v. Lopez (136) = must be economic activity involved that substantially affects interstate commerce
   a. Gun Free School Zones Act of 1990
   b. Strucuralist argument
   c. Rational basis test...
3. U.S. v. Morrison (144)
   b. Inappropriate use of commerce power
   c. Jurisdictional nexus = congress puts language in the state to explicitly say that it is under the commerce power
   d. Congressional findings, but that is not enough
   e. Police power reserved for the states
4. Gonzales v. Raich (149)
   a. Pot growing, okay to regulate a illegal market
   b. Used arguments in Wickard v. Filburn to say that people
      i. Dissent = states are laboratories, courts definition of economic activity threatens to sweep all productive human activity into federal regulatory reach
   c. Extended the economic-noneconomic distinction emphasized in Morrison, allowed fed govt to aggregate the effects of home grown marijuana at home for personal consumption in noneconomic
5. NFIB v. Sebelious (157)
   a. individual mandate does not regulate existing commerce activity
   b. failure to act is not an economic avidity
   c. “the commerce clause is not a general license to regulate an individual from cradle to grave”

c. Taxing & Spending Power - Art. I § 8 cl. 1

i. Taxing & Spending Power
   1. Congress has the “power to lay & collect taxes, duties, imposts & excises to pay the debts and provide for the common defense and general welfare.”
2. Modern judicial trend is to uphold any tax as valid if it is in fact a revenue-raising measure

   b. incredibly deferential, the difference between local and general welfare is upt to Congress, court can only overrun if the choice is “clearly wrong” and display of arbitrary power

5. South Dakota v. Dole (204)
   a. SD had a lower drinking age, Congress wouldn’t give tax money of fed highways to states that did not have the fed drinking age, promote safe roads

b. Dole Factors:
   i. Is the condition related to the expenditure?
   ii. Is the condition expressed in an unambiguous manner?
   iii. Is the financial inducement so great as to be coercive or compulsory?
   iv. Are other constitutional concerns raised?

   a. This is too much, goes too far – taking all of Medicaid funding
   b. Gun to the head standard (216):
      i. Conditions do not limit how states used funds
      ii. Fed threat at issue was the removal of an independent pre-existing grant, rather than future denial of potential funding iii. The threatened removal was a large amount of funding iv. The change in Medicaid program was a change in kind rather than a degree
      v. The states were purportedly unable to predict the new conditions upon initially receiving the funds V. War & Treaty Power – Art. 1 §8

a. War/Defense Power:
   i. “To declare War, grant Letters of Marque and Reprisal, and make Rules concerning Captures on Land and Water”

e. MODERN SUBSTANTIVE DUE PROCESS

I. Constitution Protects Individual Rights via:
   a. 5th Amendment – (fed)
   b. 14th Amend – (states)

II. Sources of Authority for “Right to Privacy”:
   a. Grounded in prenumbras of rights in First 10 Amendments (Griswold); or
   b. Implicit in the idea of “Ordered liberty” (Justice Frankfurter in Adamson v. California)

III. Types of Due Process:
   a. Procedural Due Process
   b. Economic Substantive Due Process (Lochner era)
   c. Modern Substantive Due Process

IV. Standards of Review:

   - Rational Basis
   - Undue Burden

   - Heightened RB
   - Strict Scrutiny

   a. Rational Basis
      i. Apply RB if no “fundamental right”
      ii. Most deferential to state, requires a conceivably rational relationship with a genuine public end/purpose
b. Strict Scrutiny
   i. Apply SS if “fundamental right”
   ii. Least deferential to state, need a compelling state interest
      1. Carolene Products footnote 4
         a. Basis for Modern Strict Scrutiny
         b. Apply when the legislation:
            i. targets a specific prohibition of the constitution, such as the bill of rights
            ii. restricts political processes that could repeal undesired legislation
            iii. is directed at racial, religious and “discrete and insular” minorities

V. Modern SDP Cases (Privacy)

a. FAMILY COMPOSITION
   i. MARRIAGE = fundamental right, strict scrutiny
      1. Loving v. Virginia (529)
         a. Struck down VA ban on interracial marriage
            i. Freedom to marry long recognized as essential to orderly pursuit of happiness
            ii. Equal protection & d.p. rationales
      2. Zablocki v. Redhail (529)
         a. Invalidated WI law requiring man with child support obligations to obtain a court order before marrying
         b. Crt applied 'critical examination' test
            i. There were less intrusive means to compel child support (i.e. wage garnishment)
         a. Invalidated prison regulation restricting prison inmates’ right to marry conditioning it only for compelling reasons like pregnancy or birth of child
         b. Marriage is expression of emotional support and public commitment with spiritual significance
            i. Most inmate marriages formed with expectation that they will be consummated ii. Marriage is often pre-condition to receive government benefits iii. Reasonable relation standard

   ii. HOUSEHOLD COMPOSITION & EXTENDED FAMILY RELATIONSHIPS – rational basis

      1. Moore v. East Cleveland (531) – rational basis invalids the law
         a. Invalidated zoning ordinance limiting occupancy to single nuclear family
         b. The ordinance only marginally served legit gov't interests of overcrowding and traffic congestion
      2. Belle Terre v. Boraas (532) – rational basis
         a. Upheld family oriented zoning restriction preventing unrelated groups from village
         b. Majority upheld law as “economic and social legislation”
3. Troxel v. Granville (533)
   a. Invalidated state court order granting grandparent’s visiting rights to their grandkids over objection of sole fit mother
   b. 14th amend DP protects fundamental right of parents to make decisions regarding the care, custody & control of their kids

   a. Upheld CA law that presumed a child born to a wife is a legitimate child of the marriage
   b. Scalia view: must be a fundamental & historical/traditionally recognized right

b. CHILD REARING – heightened scrutiny
   i. Parents able to control the education of their children
      1. Meyer v. Nebraska (492)
         a. not ok to ban teaching foreign languages to young children
      2. Pierce v. Society Sisters (492)
         a. not ok to require kids to attend public schools
      3. Skinner (493) – prisoners who committed moral turpitude were being sterilized, procreation is so inherent to right of man you can’t take that away

   c. ADVANCE DECISION TO REFUSE TREATMENT – rational basis standard
      i. Cruzan v. Director Missouri Dept. Health (550)
         1. Upheld MI law requiring “clear and convincing evidence” to discontinue life support for a person left in vegetative state
         2. Interest of other family members does not trump the states interest to protect life
         3. the Constitution does not require that family members be allowed to make these decisions for their incapacitated relatives
         1. Upheld WA law banning physician assisted suicide
            a. You can refuse treatment, you can’t do an affirmative act to kill yourself

d. SEXUAL CONDUCT – need legitimate state interest to justify the intrusion
   i. Bowers v. Hardwick (536)
      1. Court upholds GA state law ban on sodomy, no gender distinction so no equal protection argument
         a. Crt limited scope of right and determined not to be fundamental via previously recognized rights, historical proscription, uniform state approach, fails traditional SDP analysis
   ii. Lawrence v. Texas (538)
      1. Invalidates TX law criminalizing same sex sexual conduct a. Liberty presumes an autonomy of self that includes freedom of thought, belief, expression & certain intimate control
         b. No rational relation to a legitimate government interest, in effect used strict scrutiny
      2. Need to have a legitimate state interest that justifies the intrusion

e. CONTRACEPTION – strict scrutiny
i. Griswold v. CT (493)
   1. fundamental right to marital privacy, can’t ban use of contraceptives for married couples b/c fundamental right in penumbras of 1st, 3rd, 4th, 5th, and 9th Amendments
ii. Carey v. Population Services, Int’l (501)
   1. Can’t ban sale of contraceptive to minors
   2. Strict scrutiny
iii. Eisenstadt v. Baird (501)
   1. Contraceptive liberty expands to unmarried people, under equal protection, rational basis with a bite

f. ABORTION – undue burden standard

   i. Roe v. Wade (503)
      1. Challenge to a TX state abortion law that prohibited abortions except to save a woman’s life
      2. Standing – capable of repetition yet evading review
      3. Personal rights are “fundamental”
      4. State DOES have a compelling interest: protecting health of pregnant woman v. protecting potential human life
      5. Developed trimester framework (no longer applicable)

   ii. Planned Parenthood v. Casey (515)
      1. Challenge to PA law imposed 24 hr waiting period & spousal notification requirements
      2. Undue burden standard = law is unconstitutional if the purpose or effect is to place a substantial obstacle in the path of a women seeking an abortion before the fetus attains viability
         a. Spousal notification was an “undue burden” because it would prevent women in relationships with history of domestic violence from seeking an abortion – an insular minority is effected
         b. 24 hr waiting period was not a substantial obstacle
         c. parental notifications are okay as long as judicial bypass

   iii. Ayotte v. Planned Parenthood (525)
      1. State abortion law unconstitutional because it lacked an exception for the health of the mother
      2. parental notification statute

   iv. Stenberg v. Carhart (525)
      1. Application of Casey, unconstitutional late term D&E abortion ban that did not include exception for health of mother

   v. Gonzales v. Carhart (526)
      1. Challenge to late term abortion dilation & evacuation (D&E) ban
      2. Law was upheld because Congress enacted law to draw a bright line between an abortion & infanticide
      3. Only a method of abortion is banned, that’s okay
      4. Regulations that subject women to significant health risks (Challenges) must establish that the law would be unconstitutional in a large faction of relevant cases
      5. “as applied challenge” – a particular application of a statute is unconstitutional
