First Bar Review of 2013 This Friday!

Things are swinging back into full gear. With the start of the semester a number of interesting symposiums are being hosted on our campus so be sure to look out for the upcoming dates and free registration. There is also a Music Business Seminar hosted at Berkeley Law School this Saturday that focuses on the music industry and law in the digital age. The seminar will culminate in beer, wine and live music and is a great opportunity for networking both with lawyers, industry experts and other bay area law students.

Administration wise, I’ve been asked to remind everyone that the Fridge in Bannan is communal so please clean out your food. Also, submissions to the Grapevine must be received by Friday at 5pm: flyers in pdf format and calendar submissions in the body of the email to scu.sba.grapevine@gmail.com.

Hope to see you out at Bar Review Friday!

This Sunday is also the official Legislative Committee drafting session, where we will be drafting amendments to both the SBA Constitution and By-Laws. Proposals will be presented for a vote to the Board of Governors and the Student Body. Come get involved!

SCU Law Friends,

I hope everyone enjoyed the long weekend!

The SBA has a couple notable events going on this week. First, the SBA is hosting our first Student Action Committee meeting this Thursday, January 24th at 12:00 PM in Bannan 241. There, we will hear progress reports from committee leaders and set "next-step" action items for our Spring 2013 agenda. All students are welcome to attend the meeting and the Student Action Committee agenda can be found online here:

https://docs.google.com/spreadsheet/ccc?key=0AuMk5bkjPMo3dFhCa0dITWRDVzRuVj1U2M5SWF0MIE#gid=0

Second, the first Bar Review of 2013 will be this Friday, January 25th at 9:00 PM at the Old Wagon Saloon in Downtown San Jose. Please be responsible and plan rides ahead :)

Finally, just a reminder to everyone that SCU Law Business Cards continue to be on sale online on the SBA webpage.

Legislative Committee Drafting Session

Sunday, January 27th
11am – 2pm
Delicious Brunch will be provided.
Room: B301E

The Legislative Drafting session will commence with a discussion of Professor Hseih's memo and current proposals by members (found on Committee page, see left). The Committee will then break into smaller groups to complete the proposed amendment to the Constitution or revision to the By-Laws. At the end of the meeting a short brief will be given by each group. Final drafts will be prepared over the week and a presentation of the final proposal will be made to the Committee the following Friday. Presentation of the agreed upon proposal will then be made to the Board of Governors Monday, 2/4.
