FROM THE PRESIDENT:

Greetings everyone,

I hope everyone had a relaxing long weekend and that you are ready for a short week.

As clubs continue to have their welcome meetings this week, the SBA will hold elections for class reps and part time vice president. The sign up sheets are on the bulletin boards in Bannan. Voting will be done online on E-Campus on Thursday and Friday. Class representatives provide much needed voices and I encourage everyone interested in being involved to apply. There are also sign up sheets for the various SBA and Dean's committees as alternative ways to get involved.

Also, as fall begins there are public interest opportunities abound. The public interest and social justice coalition worked hard over the summer to provide students with a number of volunteer opportunities for the fall. If interested, please visit the Center for Social Justice and Public Service on the 3rd floor of Bannan.

Take care and have a wonderful week.

Carlos Rosario

Special Speaker:

Luis CdeBaca

Ambassador-at-Large
Office to Monitor and Combat
Trafficking in Persons

The United States Effort to Combat
Human Trafficking

Bannan Hall 142
Tuesday, September 28th
5:30- 7:00 pm

In May 2009, Ambassador Luis CdeBaca was appointed by President Obama to coordinate U.S. government activities in the global fight against contemporary forms of slavery. He serves as Senior Advisor to the Secretary of State and directs the Department's Office to Monitor and Combat Trafficking in Persons.

Mr. CdeBaca formerly served as Counsel to the House Committee on the Judiciary, where his portfolio for Chairman John Conyers, Jr. included national security, intelligence, immigration, civil rights, and modern slavery issues.

At the Justice Department, Mr. CdeBaca was one of the country's most-decorated federal prosecutors, leading the investigation and prosecution of cases involving money laundering, organized crime, alien smuggling, official misconduct, hate crimes, and human trafficking. He was honored with the Attorney General's Distinguished Service Award for his service as lead trial counsel in the largest slavery prosecution in U.S. history, which involved the enslavement of over 300 Vietnamese and Chinese workers in a garment factory in American Samoa. Additionally, he received the Department's highest litigation honor – the Attorney General's John Marshall Award – and the Director's Award from the Executive Office of United States Attorneys. He has received the leading honor given by the national trafficking victim service provider community, the Freedom Network's Paul & Sheila Wellstone Award, and has been named the Michigan Law School's Distinguished Latino Alumnus. He has convicted dozens of abusive pimps and employers, and helped to liberate hundreds of victims from servitude.
