

Kate Schuelke
SVP, Chief Legal Officer & Corporate
Secretary
Seagate Technology

Kate Schuelke has more than 30 years of experience representing technology companies both in house and at international law firms. Prior to joining Seagate, Kate was Senior Vice President, General Counsel, and Secretary at Altera Corporation, during which time she helped negotiate that company's purchase by Intel. She received a Bachelor of Arts Degree in Economics from the University of Buffalo and received her Juris Doctor from New York University School of Law. She also was a Fulbright Scholar in Poland where she lectured on U.S. Intellectual Property Law. She currently serves on the board of directors of SiTime Corporation.