

Marjorie Goux Chief Legal Officer Rodan & Fields

Marjorie Goux is Chief Legal Officer of RODAN + FIELDS, makers of life-changing skincare, prior to which she served as Chief Legal Counsel at CLIF BAR whose energy bars fuel our adventures. Marjorie is a strategic advisor for the seed-stage and award-winning kids' computing startup TANOSHI. She also previously served as Division Counsel for a series of CLOROX businesses: Homecare products including CLOROX cleaners, LIQUID PLUMR and GREENWORKS, GLAD Products, Speciality Products such as KINGSFORD and BRITA, and Pet products such as EVERCLEAN litter while also serving as Chief Counsel for Clorox's Global Alliances team involved in strategic partnering like BURT'S BEES BABY clothing and others. Marjorie developed deep expertise in IP law and anti-counterfeiting and international law at HP and BAKER MCKENZIE in London, UK and Palo Alto, USA.

A passionate advocate for breaking the poverty cycle through education, Marjorie supports education-focused organizations. Currently she is Board chair at the Oakland Public Education Fund and an advocate for Girls Inc. of Alameda County in Oakland, California.

Marjorie graduated from the University of Washington (BSc Chemistry) and University College, London (Law). She also keeps busy with her 15-year-old boy and girl twins.