

Christine Garcia-Sen
Supervising Deputy District Attorney
Economic Crimes Group

Christine Garcia-Sen has been a criminal prosecutor for 25 years during which she has prosecuted over 100 jury trials involving a wide range of crimes including rape, child molest, murder, robbery kidnaping and tax evasion. Currently she is a Supervising Attorney in the Santa Clara County Office of the District Attorney where she oversees the Economic Crimes Group consisting of teams of attorneys that prosecute high tech crime, white collar crime and insurance fraud. She received her law degree from Hastings College of Law.