

Damien Eastwood
Vice President, Commercial (Legal)
Splunk Inc.

Damien Eastwood is the Vice President of Commercial (Legal) at Splunk, where he specializes in complex transactions, mergers and acquisitions, and open source strategy. Damien has over twenty years of legal experience in the technology industry. His experience spans both hardware and software, with expertise in intellectual property, open source, mergers and acquisitions, and management. He has managed teams of 50+ lawyers, closed major deals, and helped define company strategy. Prior to Splunk, Damien was general counsel at Mocana Corporation, Aruba Networks, and Wayin, Inc. He also held various legal positions at Sun Microsystems, Novell and Amstrad. Damien earned his Juris Doctor at Santa Clara University School of Law.