RUMOR MILL:

Why does the Associate Dean care about whether or not I downloaded my Torts exam?

He doesn't. Well, he might but that's not the point. There are 2 Michael Flynns at the law school. One is our Associate Dean. The other is the lesser known but equally important System Manager for the law school who works in Law Student Services. System Manager Michael will send you emails about downloading Exemplify, about downloading your exam template, about uploading your exams and any other tricky Exemplify related thing. Please read his emails, they contain stuff you need to know about finals. Read the other Flynn's emails too.
