Wellness Tip: Take a Break!

Research shows that taking breaks will actually increase your potential for success!

Graduating Students:

Attention Graduating Students: July 2019 California Bar Exam - Important information and deadlines are posted at: <http://www.calbar.ca.gov/Admissions/Examinations/California-Bar-Examination/July-2019-California-Bar-Examination>

Summer registration wait list procedure:

- Have a plan B if your desired classes are closed; register for your back-up schedule.
- Add your name to the wait list for any closed classes you are interested in. The wait list process is the only way to become eligible for enrollment; professor approval does not bypass the wait list process.
- Check your SCU email for any updates.

Grad Celebration

April 10, 2019 at 12:00 - 1:00 & 5:00 - 6:00 pm
Mabie Grand Atrium

Join us on April 10 to select your commencement seating, learn about Bar prep resources, pick up SBA board or journal board certificates, pick up your raffle prize ticket, and much more.

At 5:00 p.m., stop by for cake, cider, and network with the Alumni Board members. We will also draw for raffle prizes. (must be present to win.) Kindly RSVP to lawstudentservices@scu.edu, by 4/3/19, if you plan to attend the 5:00 p.m. event.

See attached advertisement for more details.

RUMOR MILL:

If a class is closed when I try to register, I should send an email to the professor for permission to add.

If a class is closed during the registration period, you should add your name to the wait list, register for a back-up option, and keep an eye on your SCU email for updates!

The wait list determines the priority for enrollment as seats become available. The earlier you add your name to the wait list, the higher priority you will have. Student Services manages the wait list process (and reviews it daily) until the second week of the semester. Not until then do Professors have the ability to add students, if space permits.
