Santa Clara Law Town Hall: Pushing Back Against White Nationalism
 12:00-1:00PM @Charney 104

The Jewish Law Student Association, along with 14 other LSO Co-Sponsors and Santa Clara Law faculty and staff, will be hosting a town hall brainstorming session to identify ways we might harness our community's strengths and values to fight white nationalism locally and throughout the country. Our hope is to generate new ideas that can incorporate modern technology with activism, as well as older time tested methods. Lunch will be provided.

Important Dates

Nov. 14	Council of Leaders Mtg
Nov. 21	Classes end & University Bursar's payment deadline
Nov. 22-23	Thanksgiving Break
Nov. 24-27	Reading Period
Nov. 28- Dec. 14	Examination Period
Dec. 21	Spring Tuition Clearance Deadline

Don't Buy Those Plane Tickets Yet! Check your Exam Schedule First!

The Fall 2018 exam period runs from November 28 to December 14, 2018. The exam schedule is posted on the Course Schedule page at www.law.scu.edu. Do not make any travel or vacation plans during this time period. The Law School will not reschedule finals due to travel plans.

Exams will be rescheduled only for "extraordinary and compelling reasons beyond the student's control." Please write your exam dates on your calendar and do not schedule anything during your exam period.

Wellness Tip:

Believe in yourself! It doesn't matter what others are doing. It matters what YOU are doing.

Emergency Issues with Exams?!

DO NOT CONTACT THE PROFESSOR!

We must maintain anonymity— that's why we have BGIDs! If you have an emergency situation regarding your exams or exam schedule (e.g., getting sick, family emergency, etc.), do NOT contact the professor! Address your issues with Law Student Services. (lawstudentservices@scu.edu / 408-554-4766 / Charney 114)

It's Wellness Week!

Take a little time to chillax, have fun, laugh and be well. Check the TV screens for more information.

Do you have an incomplete grade pending?

The deadline to submit your work to your professor is Nov. 21, 2018 (last day of class) unless you have made separate arrangements with your professor to submit it earlier. Questions? Email lawstudentservices@scu.edu or stop by our office in Charney 114.

RUMOR MILL:

Everyone around me seems to be sneezing and coughing lately. What happens if you get sick right before your final?

It's never a good idea to try to power through an exam. You might feel better in January, but your grade won't. If you are sick, don't go into the exam room. Instead, go to Cowell or go to your doctor and get an excuse note. It needs to say that you were seen that day and that you were sick. Then go home. Then send us an email explaining that you went home. Then get better. Then let us know when you are ready to take the test and we will reschedule it. Once you open an exam packet and see the exam, we cannot reschedule the exam. Don't walk in that exam room if you are too sick to take the test.

Howard's Hour

Charney Hall has its own personal startup advisor, and you have a chance to meet him. Join us for Howard's Hour, with the law school building's namesake, Howard S. Charney (Santa Clara MBA '73 and J.D. '77). Charney co-founded the $3 billion company 3Com in 1980, and 12 years later founded Grand Junction Networks, which was acquired by Cisco in 1995.

We have three opportunities for you to gain incredible insight from this successful entrepreneur. Don't miss out on a chance to hear the one piece of advice that might make the difference for your future ventures.

9/26 Starting the Venture: Engaging with Founders, Defining Roles, Splitting up Equity, Growth and Transitioning

10/31 Funding the Venture: Fundraising for Companies of
