

Jeremiah Chan
Director and Associate General Counsel, Head of Patents
Facebook

Jeremiah Chan is Head of Patents at Facebook, leading a team that is responsible for the strategic development of Facebook's global patent portfolio. He and his team also work on IP transactions, dispute resolution and other risk mitigation initiatives. Prior to joining Facebook, Jeremiah led an international team at Google that was focused on portfolio strategy, operations and data science; and before that served as Head of IP for JDSU, a global supplier of broadband and optical solutions.

Jeremiah started his career in private practice with the law firm of Fish & Neave, where he specialized in litigation, opinion work, and client counseling. Jeremiah graduated from UC Berkeley with highest honors while working as a marketing assistant at the University of California Press. He received his JD from Cornell Law School and worked as a law intern at Cornell's Legal Aid Clinic.
