

Nancy H. Wojtas
Partner
Cooley LLP

Nancy H. Wojtas is a partner in the Business department of Cooley LLP and is the former co-chair of the Public Companies Group of the law firm. She advises clients on a broad variety of corporate governance, crisis management, acquisitions, private and public offerings, venture capital financings, proxy contests, going-private transactions and blockchain/cryptocurrency regulatory matters. Ms. Wojtas worked at the Securities and Exchange Commission and served as Counsel to the Chairman of the Commission. She is a member of the Opinions Committee of the California State Bar and a former Co-Chair of the Corporations Committee of the Business Section of the California State Bar. She also is an adjunct professor at Santa Clara University School of Law. Ms. Wojtas is admitted to practice law in California, New York and Illinois. Ms. Wojtas was included in The Best Lawyers in America in the specialties of Corporate Governance and Compliance in 2007- 2019.