

Laura Sheridan
Head of Portfolio Strategy
Global Patents Team
Google

Laura is Senior Patent Counsel on Google's Global Patents Team, where she leads a team focused on defining Google's patent portfolio strategy and works on patent policy issues. Prior to joining Google, Laura was in private practice, where she specialized in patent prosecution, litigation, IP due diligence, and post-grant practice before the Patent Office. She speaks regularly on patent-related topics including patent quality and post-grant challenges under the AIA. Laura studied engineering at Cornell University and received her J.D. from Fordham Law School.
