

Anne-Claire Jamart
Cornell Law School

Anne-Claire Jamart is a doctoral student at Cornell Law School. Her field of research is Internet governance, with a particular focus on sovereignty in cyberspace. Anne-Claire has clerked at the Conseil d'Etat (the French administrative supreme court), where she has advised the Conseil's members on comparative law, and has taught American law at Ecole Normale Supérieure. Her prior experience includes practicing corporate and finance law in the London office of Fried, Frank, Harris, Shriver and Jacobson (LLP). Anne-Claire earned a Juris Doctor from Cornell Law School, a Maîtrise en droit from Université Panthéon-Sorbonne and a Master in European Law from the College of Europe.